Babette Haag: Percussion (Marimba)

17 October 2013
8 pm

Catholic Church „Shën Ndou“

With friendly support from:

Babette Haag studied percussion at the Music Academy in Freiburg, Breisgau.

From 1989-1996, she was the Solo Percussionist of the “Philharmonie der Nationen” (Philharmonic Orchestra of the Nations), conducted by Justus Frantz. In 1992/93, she – as percussion soloist – became an awardee of the “Deutsche Musikrat”, as well as being a member of the 42nd National Selection “Konzerte junger Kuenstler” (Concerts by young artists). Since that time, she has been invited to play at prestigious music festivals throughout Germany, such as the “Rheingau Musikfestival” and the “Schleswig-Holstein Musik Festival”. She also plays at regular intervals with various symphony orchestras (e.g. the Bavarian Broadcasting Orchestra, the Frankfurter Museumsorchester, Staatstheater Oldenburg, Wuerttembergisches Kammerorchester Heilbronn).

In addition to her orchestral work, she plays solo concerts throughout the world and offers master classes, workshops and courses, both nationally and internationally, passing on her knowledge to others.
